YOUR laundress may be a "jewel"—let us hope she is.

Nevertheless, there are some things you may not care to entrust even to her—lace handkerchiefs, for example; colored goods; or, possibly a shirt-waist of more than ordinary beauty.

Such articles as these you will do well to wash yourself—with Ivory Soap and lukewarm water.

UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT.

J. Cooper, formerly buyer for the S. N. Wood Company, of San Francisco, arrived with his wife on the Alameda on Friday. Mr. Cooper comes under engagement with the Kash Company and has assumed the management of that well known establishment. He has had long experience in the clothing and furnishing goods business and brings to Honolulu ideas that are rather new here. He proposes to put in a stock of absolutely modern goods that will embrace the fashion designs of the latest cities and the designs are to be shown in a class of goods that should take here. An announcement in this issue sets forth the new policy of the Kash, a policy, by the way, that is startling in its innovations.

Harmony Lodge No. 3, I. O. O. F., will meet in Odd Fellows hall at 7:30 this evening.

Leah Chapter No. 2, O. E. S., will meet in Masonic Temple this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

At the Fort street Chinese church last evening Ed. Towse gave a stereopticon lecture on the Passion Play, using seventy slides. Frank Damon conducted the regular church services and the musical program was augmented by cello selections by Dr. Ramms of the Marine Hospital Service.

W. H. Crawford yesterday entertained in honor of his son, William H. Crawford Jr., who had attained the age of one month. The entertainment was in the nature of a grand loun, at which were present a number of the influential men of Chinatown, several county officials and others. The affair took place at the host's Liliha street residence.

AMUSEMENTS

Vaudeville Farce.

Honolulu residents are to have a taste of genuine high class vaudeville at the Opera House on Tuesday night when the Armstrong and Verne company will make its first appearance here. The members are returning to Australia from an extended visit to the mainland playing in the big cities and with big companies as the leading spirits in joy plays.

There is nothing serious in the members. Armstrong would bring a smile to the face of the Kamehameha statue if the statue would look his way, and the rest of the company are not far behind him. The program will be made up of an opening and closing sketch, both very amusing, and there will be refined vaudeville between. Mr. Armstrong has with him some of the very latest of George Cohan's hits in songs and will sing them. George Cohan, be it remembered, is one of the best comedians on the American stage today and a drawing card wherever he appears. Miss Verne is a soufrette of a very high class, sparkling with fun and good humor always.

Performances will be given Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening, a complete change of program at every performance. The program will be void of serious business, not a member of the company can be serious, so it is bound to be an entertainment that will make the most distressed individual forget his troubles. Seats will be on sale at the Bergstrom Music store at 10 this morning.

The Park Theater.

A series of pictures dealing with the revolutionary war will be shown at the Park Theater tonight under the title the Press Gang. It shows three British soldiers captured by American troops with the aid of a young woman. After this and another bunch of very interesting pictures are shown, the Melnotte sisters will do one of their really clever turns and please the audience with their songs. Faded Flowers, another entertaining picture, is one of those double printing affairs that confuses all but those who know how it is done. The subject is a young couple about to be married and who receives presents from a grandmother who removes them from a mysterious casket. It is a good story nicely pictured. The attendance at the Park last week was a record one.

The Dance Tonight.

To many ladies and gentlemen a dance after a day of hard work is rest and recreation combined. This is especially so when the dance is to music as delightful as that furnished at the Waverley dance hall by the Kawai-hau quintet club of which Sam K. Nainoa is leader. The hall grows in popularity daily, or nightly, and the attendance increases. On Saturday night the affair was recherche and the enjoyment was increased by the fact that especially good dancers were present. The music seemed better than ever. It seems that a hint in a newspaper is often of more help in regulating an institution of this kind than when the hint is direct and by word of mouth. Go to the Waverley and have a dance; you will enjoy it.

TWENTY THOUSAND PRICE OF BRIDGES

Hilo Railroad Contract for Three New Structures for the Extension.

Hilo Herald.—R. R. Elgin visited the volcano on Wednesday night, returning to Hilo early on Thursday morning and putting through a deal, on the same day, that amounted to nearly $20,000, after keeping his friends guessing and joshing him.

The party of the second part in the deal was Contractor A. A. Wilson, in charge of the Hilo railroad extension work, who has just entered into an agreement with the Hawaii Railway Company to build three new bridges for its line between Mahukona and Kohala. These bridges are to be constructed of cross-tied lumber on concrete abutments, and Contractor Wilson already has his representatives on the ground doing preliminary work.
